

The Corporation of the City of Burlington Office of the Mayor

PROCLAMATION

Whereas World Primary Immunodeficiency Week celebrated April 22-April 29, 2023 offers an opportunity to inform and educate health policy-makers, schools and families, workplaces and the general public about primary immunodeficiencies to drive the earliest possible diagnosis and optimal treatment; and

Whereas ImmUnity Canada's vision is that all Canadians with immunodeficiency disorders have access to the resources they need to thrive. ImmUnity Canada empowers people impacted by immunodeficiency disorders to live well through education, support, advocacy, community-building, and research. ImmUnity Canada provides both national as well as regional/provincial services related to immunodeficiency including education, support, advocacy and research to thousands of patients. ImmUnity Canada also works with patient families and caregivers, as well as healthcare professionals; and

Whereas ImmUnity Canada will unite its supporters across Canada during World Primary Immunodeficiency Week to create raised awareness among people diagnosed with a rare disorder about the support and services available to them from ImmUnity Canada, and for the community to understand and respect the needs of this rare group of unique individuals.

Therefore I, Marianne Meed Ward, Mayor of the City of Burlington do hereby proclaim April 22nd- 29th, 2023, as:

“World Primary Immunodeficiency Week”

in the City of Burlington and do commend its thoughtful observance to all citizens of our municipality.

Dated this 18th day of April, 2023
