

The Corporation of the City of Burlington
Office of the Mayor

PROCLAMATION

Whereas Ontario's Municipalities are encouraged by the Province to preserve, promote and commemorate heritage in all of its forms including its Built, Cultural and Natural Heritage, through the support of heritage conservation projects, as undertaken by public and private agencies, organizations and individuals; and

Whereas these public and private agencies, organizations and individuals, many who are volunteers, have been involved in extensive programs to educate and promote heritage activities in the municipalities; and

Whereas the Heritage Week Subcommittee in conjunction with the Heritage Burlington Advisory Committee, and many other partners have developed a week of events to highlight and recognize each group's or person's participation to further the education and promotion of heritage by way of displays, presentations and walks to celebrate Burlington's heritage in its 150th year; and

Whereas Heritage Week is an opportunity for communities, residents and visitors to reflect on these contributions to Burlington and the Province on how heritage is conserved, promoted and commemorated and how we wish to envision and shape the future by supporting our past; and

Whereas This council deems it necessary to recognize the dedication and commitment of all of the heritage organizations and volunteers in Burlington who continue to work to protect this community's and Ontario's irreplaceable heritage.

Therefore I, Marianne Meed Ward, Mayor of the City of Burlington do hereby proclaim August 5th to 12th, 2023 as in the City of Burlington and do commend its thoughtful observance to all citizens of our municipality.

"Burlington Heritage Week"

Dated this 28th day of July 2023

Mayor Marianne Meed Ward

CITY OF Burlington
